Testimony

Uwambajimana Liliane

Liliane, almost has 25, lives with her One child and her family. She abandoned school at the age of 16, after the birth of her first child. As she got her first birth baby died. At that time she has nothing to eat during the day, her family started helping her. For her second birth after being brutally raped. While the man managed to escape justice. She dreams about having the means to take good care of her child, and to stop being abused by her friends and partners. She would like to return to school. These women are one of the reasons we started NGO and joined the mission.

The objective is to portray teen mothers in their living and working environments, collect their testimonies and show the consequences of early pregnancy.

These are usually very ‘ordinary’: return to school, have the family together, find a job, ensure a better future for their kids, stop being abused, be happy... We truly believe that we should, and can, strive to make these ‘ordinary’ dreams come true.
